

Hi! I'm Moey.

Not your average strategist, an audaciously creative one.

Caught between being a culture vulture and a creative strategy whiz, I dove into advertising at 21. Now, 18 years later, I bring:

- Strategic and creative consultancy
- Integrated marketing and data analysis
- Strategy & Creative Leadership across MENA

In my toolkit: Business, Data, Brand, Content, and Digital Strategies; Integrated Solutions across channels; Relationship Marketing and Customer Experience Management.

I'm all about numbers and results, driven by making things happen and seeing the impact.

Recent Achievements:

- Led the Evergreen Content Strategy for Saudi Tourism Authority 2023 with Beautiful Destinations beating Lionel Messi's campaign with +2.38x higher click through rate & +1.5x higher view through rate.
- Achieved multiple Gold, Silver & Bronze awards with Bond in Transform Awards MEA 2024 & 2023 for Best Development of a New Brand, Best Expression of a Brand on Social Media Channels, for EDIT by Seddiqi Holding and Ticket by Dubai Holding.
- Won Silver at Cannes Lions 2022 & Grand Prix at Dubai Lynx 2022 for Twitter #FeminineArabic.

Red Sea Global
Brand USA

Results:
Achieved about 3x CTR and 1.5x VTR than historical benchmarks of the STA accounts since creation on paid media beating Messi's campaign, the most expensive partnership in STA history.

Developed the first image bank and Evergreen content strategy for the Saudi Tourism Authority for 2023.

Detailed work portfolio here.

My role was well-versed under many hats:

Crafting Content Strategies: Playing a crucial role in driving marketing campaigns by leveraging new ideas, content sources, and media production strategies.

Research: Cultural studies, visits & market research to identify trends, competitor analysis, analysing ad performance data, writing ad briefs & working on multiple aspect debriefs

Market Intelligence: Identify behaviours to come up with persona briefs, cheat sheets and come up with narratives, platforms and ideas - crossing paths with the role of a "Creative Director" to guide style, brand narrative, tone of voice, content look & feel and define copy/content for videos.

Management: On top of having budgeting skills to organise full on on-ground video production & photoshoots and manage multiple projects at one time with the client servicing teams across various marketing initiatives and clients.

Creative Direction: In charge of the overall design and execution for the creative aspect of content, creating a cohesive vibe across content from clothes, aesthetic, colours to sound design and visual representation.
